HOST OPTIONS

If you are a host you can create games of trivia and you can host games of trivia for others to play. After signing in you will be given several options, to create or host trivia click the "Host trivia" button to be taken to the host page. Otherwise you can play a game of trivia as if you were a customer by selecting the other button.

TRIVIA CREATION

This screen is where you upload the title for the entire game as well as an image and a caption. Tapping on the picture in the center of the screen will take you to the image selection screen where you will be required to select the image for the slide. The title, text, and image are all required. Once you have entered these components, you can press the blue check button to proceed to the next screen. This process will be the same for the creation of all slides except for question slides, which also require an answer.

The next screen that you are taken to is the game rounds screen, which contains all the rounds currently in the game (which will be empty at this point). This screen has the same controls as the round questions screen. Clicking the blue '+' mark will either add a round or, if you're on the rounds questions screen, a question. Once a round or question has been created, the content will show up on the screen. Next to the title of the round slide or question slide are two buttons. The pencil button will allow you to edit that round or question. The trashcan button will delete it and CANNOT BE UNDONE once it's been clicked. After you are done, you can click the check button to finish and move onto the next screen. If you are on the list of questions screen, then this will take you back to the list of rounds. If you are on the list of rounds screen, then pressing the check button will take you to the last screen of game creation, where you can finalize your game.

On this screen (bottom picture), you are required to enter a game name, host, and date. The game name is a way for you to keep track of what games you have created. Players will not see these names. After entering this information, clicking the UPLOAD button will upload the game to the server and then you will be taken back to the main host screen.

HOST TRIVIA

▶ To host a game of trivia, click the play button. Clicking over to the Trivia screen will display the game waiting screen. Once everyone has joined the game, click LAUNCH GAME to begin the game of trivia. Once a game of trivia has started, all navigation is handled with the next button. The order of progression is as follows and loops from 2 to 5 for each round:

1. Game title Slide
2. Round Title Slide
3. Question Slides
4. Answer Grading
5. Highest Scoring Team page

At any point, clicking the back button ends the game.

PLAYER EXPERIENCE

After signing in, the player will be brought directly to the chat screen, where they can view and participate in chat bar-wide. From there, you can navigate to the trivia screen, which allows the users to join a team if a current game is open. See the top picture on page three.

JOIN A TEAM

If you are a player, you can join a team by using the navigation bar to go to the second tab, the trivia tab. There, you can join a team by scanning a QR code that will be provided by the pub or host that represents a table or a team.

If a team has not been created, you will be the team leader and will choose a name for your team. You also will be able to choose the final answer for your entire team.

Even though the leader chooses the final answer, each connected player is able to submit personal responses to the team leader for review for each question.

GAMEPLAY

As the host progresses to the next question, each trivia player will see the slide appear on their device in the trivia tab and have an opportunity to respond. Users are able to switch between tabs during an active game without disconnecting from the game.

After the end of each round, the team leader for each team is required to grade opponent team's responses. This is done by the host progressing through the questions again, but this time with answers revealed. If the answer is correct, you hit the checkmark. If the answer is incorrect is wrong, you should hit the 'X' mark.

SCOREBOARD

At any point, you can see the rankings by switching to the fourth tab, the scoreboard screen. Here, you will find a list of all participating teams listed by rank as well as their current score (as of last grading period).

CHAT

Both players and hosts are able to join in the chat by switching to the chat screen, which is the first tab in the navigation bar.
